ALABAMA

Regional Coordinator's Handbook

Statewide Coordinators

The official state agency coordinating Alabama's Poetry Out Loud Program is the Alabama State Council on the Arts. The Alabama Arts Alliance, in partnership with the Council, facilitates and supports statewide coordination while maintaining fiscal responsibility for day to day program expenses. For rules of operation, logistics, and determinations of policy and eligibility please contact Diana Green. Questions concerning budget and expenses, please contact Donna Russell. When in doubt, copy both coordinators and we will get back to you as soon as we can.

BASIC RULES FOR POETRY OUT LOUD

The following is a list of basic rules that apply to Poetry Out Loud. These rules are included in the Teacher's Guide and publicized at poetryoutloud.org. If you are not certain how a rule will fit within your Poetry Out Loud program structure, please contact Diana Green at diana.green@arts.alabama.gov.

Note: Only schools registered with the Alabama State Council on the Arts are eligible for the official competition.

STUDENT ELIGIBILITY

- Grade Level: Only currently enrolled high school students in grades 9-12 are eligible, with an exception made for 8th-grade students participating in a 9th- through 12th-grade class. (See New Rules and FAQ's for exceptions)
- Regional Competition: A student may not advance to the regional competition without competing in a lower-level school competition.
- Homeschooled Students: Homeschooled students may participate by competing in a contest at a local school (at the school's discretion) or with other local homeschooled students. Contact your state Poetry Out Loud coordinator for specific guidelines.
- School Not Participating? Students unable to participate at a local school should contact their state Poetry Out Loud coordinator to discuss other opportunities for inclusion in the state's official competition.
- Repeat Champions: Only National Champions are not eligible to compete in subsequent years. The exception in Alabama is that State Champions in the Original Poetry Competition may not compete in subsequent years.

POEM ELIGIBILITY for the National Anthology Competition:

- Poem Anthology: All poems must be selected from the Poetry Out Loud print or online anthology, which is updated every summer. Check the website after September 1, 2018, to view the official Poetry Out Loud anthology for the current school year. Only versions of poems from the official anthology may be used in the contest.
- Can't Find a Poem? Poems may be removed from the online anthology before September 1, 2018. These poems are no longer eligible for competition. However, any poem in the print anthology is eligible even if it is not online.
- Poem Criteria: At the state and national finals, students must have three poems prepared. One must be 25 lines or fewer, and one must be written before the 20th century. The same poem may be used to meet both criteria, and may be the student's third poem.

POEM ELIGIBILITY for the State Original Poetry Recitation Competition:

- Originality: All poems must be written by the competing student and not copied from another poet or author. Students are required to refrain from rewriting or paraphrasing poetry or limericks from another source.
- Poem criteria: Students are required to recite two original poems at the regional competition. One poem must be 25 lines or less. The intent is for at least one poem to be short and focused, communicating a complete idea in fewer words. For this reason students should not attempt to stretch this requirement by allowing a single line or sentence to occupy more than one line on the page. Poems that could be questionable for length eligibility should be sent for review to Diana Green before the competition to make a policy determination. Ineligible poems that move forward to the state competition will not be accepted.
- Note: There is a recognition in the Original Poetry competition that two styles may emerge from students, depending on their preference and the amount of guidance given by teachers. These styles include Spoken Word and Page Poetry. Each style will be valued equally by the judges, and recognized for its strength within the specific style performed. Whether the delivery is subtle or dramatic, authenticity will be the criteria for deciding on the best recitations.

Suggestions to coordinators in training students for competition

- Hand gestures: whereas some have discouraged the use of gesture at all, students are winning national awards while using hand gestures. Gestures, as in dramatic delivery, must be authentic and not nervous. Most literal gestures are to be discouraged (i.e. pointing to the sky for “sky,”. Gestures should add meaning to the poem, not mirror or distract.
